PRESS RELEASE

LPBC's key achievements of semi-annual activity and a way forward

The Luxembourg-Poland Business Club (LPBC) was formed at the end of 2012 as a non-profit organisation facilitating business relations between Poland and Luxembourg.

After ten months of activity, LPBC counts 40 individual members and 8 corporate members, including big corporations operating in Poland and in Luxembourg like AXA, Deloitte, Euroscript, ING, PwC, but also middle size companies like Finexis, Loyens & Loeff and Software Mill.

In this short time LPBC supported initiative of lunching direct flights between Luxembourg and Poland; prepared a workshop for an international bank who recently launched operations in Poland; set up a meeting between Luxembourg investors and representants of Polish regions in order to exchange on investment climate and business opportunities in Poland; co-organised a seminar on tax specificities between Luxembourg and Poland.

In the forthcoming future LPBC is going to provide further advice to Polish-Luxembourgish community during thematic events and workshops. LPBC's main objective is to give support to members in all queries and questions they might have.
