The 8th edition of the "Entrepreneurial Woman Project" (EWP), a unique initiative for English-speaking women living in and around Luxembourg to pursue their business dream projects, has come to an end.

On 15 November we met at the Arendt House to wrap up this year's edition and to award three winning projects among the 13 final contestants, chosen by the women who participated through voting. This year's Gala was hosted by Lisa Burke. We were also accompanied by special guest Gosia Kramer, founder and CEO of The Office, a coworking spaces company with 3 locations in Luxembourg, who shared the backstage details of her business.

We are excited to present you the winners of Entrepreneurial Woman Project 2021:
