DIGITAL MARKETING

Not having business online limits your development.

To have an Internet resource and not to promote it does not make sense.

Creative Agency ATOCHKA

Interior design, architecture, website creation, the beauty industry, education for children or handmade or even publishing comics - absolutely any activity will require customer sourcing.

As a digital marketing specialist, we will be responsible for all digital marketing campaigns, including generating leads, conducting market research and actively engaging with businesses to optimise the effectiveness of digital strategies.
